INSTRUCTIONS TO THE AUTHORS/AUTHORS GUIDELINES

About the journal

The International Journal of Pharmaceutical, Physico-chemical and Nutritional Analysis (IJPPNA) is devoted to the publication of contributions in all fields of analytical sciences including pharmacy, chemistry, bio-analytical chemistry, electro-chemistry, phytochemistry, hydrology, bromatology, nutrition, pharmaceutical regulation, food sciences, environment, biophysics, botany, parasitology, biochemistry, molecular biology, pharmacokinetics, biotechnology, validation of analytical methods, omic sciences (metabolomics, proteomics, etc.), drugs risks and food risks analysis, environmental biology, hydrobiology, agricultural sciences. It publishes original research papers, critical up-to-date and concise reviews on topics of current interest, and short communications. It aims to serve all chemists, bioscientists, pharmacists, regulators. Submission of a manuscript will be held to imply that the work reported in it is original, that the results have not been previously published and are not under consideration for publication elsewhere; and further, that if accepted, will not be published elsewhere.

Article types

Research article (Full-length paper): Research articles report on significant and innovative achievements and should exhibit a high level of originality. Maximum 15 pages, 30 references

Review article: Review articles are welcome in any area of chemistry/biology/pharmacy and may cover a wider or a more specialized area, if a high impact is expected. Maximum 25 pages, 60 references

Short communication: Short communications generally follow the same order of sections, but should be short (max. 8 pages, 10 references) and report on a significant aspect of research work meriting a separate publication. This can include the Letters to the Editor that allow you to express points of view and positions. The publication of a letter to the editor allows you to question certain recently published facts, to discuss a thesis, to debate and argue certain ideas.

Article structure

Subsections should be numbered 1.1 (then 1.1.1, 1.1.2, ...), 1.2, etc. (the abstract is not included in section numbering). Use this numbering also for internal cross-referencing: do not just refer to "the text". Any subsection may be given a brief heading.

Authors from Francophone countries may submit manuscripts in French but must include an English translation (use British or American but not a mix) of the Title and the Abstract.

See template on the Journal's website at www.ijppna.org

Title and authors

The title (centered, lowercases, Front size 12, black color) should describe the content fully but concisely. The names, written in full (surname last in capital letters), and affiliations of authors should be given with postal addresses. The author to whom proofs and correspondences are to be sent should be indicated, with its e-mail address and telephone.

Abstract

Articles should be provided with an abstract not exceeding 200 words. It should be written in simple language and should highlight the aims of the work, the approach or methodology, the main results obtained and the conclusions reached. All abbreviations should be avoided and if used, explained at least once.

Keywords

A maximum of 6 keywords must be given at the end of the Abstract. Words already in the title should not be included.

Introduction

A concise account is required of the background of the subject, its significance and its relationship to earlier works, with references.

Materials and methods

Previously described methods should be cited and not elaborately described. Statistical methods of treatment should be mentioned if they have been used. If the work done involved the use of human subjects, primates or the release of genetically modified organisms into the environment, it should be stated if clearance from the appropriate authority was obtained. The Editor may request a copy of the clearance document or informed consent form for verification.

Results

The original and important findings should be stated. Results should be illustrated with figures or tables where necessary but these should be kept to the minimum. Reference should be made to display items such as tables and figures where appropriate. Exceptionally, the "Results" and the "Discussion" parts can be combined if justified!

Discussion

Its purpose is to present a brief and permanent interpretation of the results against the background of existing knowledge. The discussion should highlight what is new in the paper. Any assumption on which conclusions are made must be stated clearly. A mere recapitulation of the results is not acceptable.

Conclusion:

This should be given at the end of the Discussion section.

Competing interests/conflict of interests

Authors should declare any competing interests. In case there is none, the following statement should be provided: "The authors declare that they have no competing interests".

Author's contributions

In order to give appropriate credit to each author of a paper, the individual contributions of authors to the manuscript should be specified in this section.

Acknowledgments

These should be presented at the end of the text and before the references. Technical assistance and advice may be acknowledged in this section.

Also funding acknowledgments can be included at the end of this section.

References

Authors are responsible for the accuracy and the completeness of their references. References should be cited in the text by the last name(s) of the author(s) and year of publication, for example, (Dieye, 2020) or (Dieye and Sarr, 2020). If the citation is the subject of the sentence, then only the date should be given in parentheses, for example, According to Faye (2021) or as suggested by Faye and Wane (2021). For citation of references with three or more authors, only the first author's name followed by et al. should be used, for example, (Faye et al., 2022) or as shown by Faye et al. (2022). If there is more than one reference in the same year for the same author(s), then please add the letters 'a', 'b', etc. to the year, for example, (Sarr, 2015a, 2015b). Only published papers or papers in press can be mentioned in the manuscript. References should be listed alphabetically at the end of the text without numbering. References to journal articles, books, chapters in books, theses, etc. should be listed as given below:

Journals (The DOIs of journal articles cited in the manuscript should be provided):

Example: Sarr, SO. ; Fall, AD. ; Gueye, R. ; Diop, A. ; Sene, B. ; Diatta, K. ; Diop, Y.M. International Journal of Biological and Chemical Sciences, 9 (6) (2015) 2676-2684. DOI= <https://doi.org/10.4314/ijbcs.v9i6.13>

Books: Author or authors. The surname is followed by first initials. Year. Title (in italics). Edition. Publisher. Place of Publication. Example: Paul G, Pearson S. 2005. The vitamins (2nd edn). Academic press:New York.

Chapters in Books: As for books adding the pages numbers: Example: Kips RH. 1985. Environmental aspects. In Pesticide Application: Principles and Practice, Haskel PT (ed). Oxford University Press: Oxford; 1-34.

Theses: Reference to a thesis must be made.

Ndiaye A. 2021. Utilisations traditionnelles des plantes médicinales : normalisations et essais. Pharmacy thesis, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, p.77.

Illustrations

Tables

Table should be typed on separate sheets, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals (e.g. Table 2) and have a short descriptive caption at the top. Avoid the use of vertical lines.

Figures

Figures should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals (e.g. Figure 5). Graphs should preferably be drawn using appropriate computer software. These should be constructed in such a manner that they can be understood without reading the text. Appropriate symbols should be used on graphs and explained in the legends. Graphs should not duplicate results presented in tables. Title and comments of the figures and photographs should be provided under the corresponding figure or photograph using MS Word.

Graphical abstract

The authors need to provide a graphical abstract. Maximum final dimensions of the graphic are 5×5 cm: bear in mind readability after reduction, especially if using one of the figures from the article itself.

Plagiarism and Ethical guidelines

Before the proof stage, we will check your manuscript from Web, plagiarism checker and databases. If we find any bad results such as plagiarism for your submission, we will immediately reject your submission and remove it from publication order.

Ethical guidelines are paramount in the policies of IJPPNA. Only manuscripts meeting international standards will be considered for publication. Peer review processes will be conducted in accordance with the COPE Guidelines for Reviewers (<https://doi.org/10.24318/cope.2019.1.9>).

IJPPNA follows the Amended Declaration of Helsinki for research involving humans. For studies on humans, animals or plants, adequate statistics must be presented and the details (code and date) of the approval of the ethics committee must be indicated in the experimental part. The approval letter must be sent upon submission. Also for psychological research, IJPPNA will apply the American Psychological Association Code of Conduct. Authors must also notify the potential existence of any conflicts of interest. These can relate to individual author commitments, project support, editors or journal staff. Otherwise, the authors declare that they have no potential conflict of interest.

All correspondences regarding articles, subscription to, announcement, and advertisement in this journal should be addressed to the Editor-in-Chief at ijppna@ucad.edu.sn
